NOTICE OF ALLOWABILITY

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on April 26, 2002 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of U.S. Pat. No. 6,143,981 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Drawings

2. The proposed drawing correction and/or the proposed substitute sheets of drawings, filed on February 22, 2001 have been approved.

3. The corrected or substitute drawings were received on February 22, 2001. These drawings are acceptable.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments regarding the 112 1st paragraph rejection of claims 37-52 and 57-61 have been considered and the rejection has been withdrawn. The rejection is withdrawn since the applicant has sufficiently pointed out in the drawings that the lip/depression/peak is shown through the reference numbers to be fully around the contact/die pad.

5. Applicant's arguments regarding the 35 USC 101 type double patenting rejection of claim 53 have been considered, and since the differences between this claim and claim 6 of US patent 6,143,981 have been pointed out, the rejection has been withdrawn.

Reasons for Allowance

6. Claims 37-61 are allowed.
7. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 37-61 are allowable for the following reasons:

- a) a terminal disclaimer has been filed with respect to US Pat. No. 6,143,981, which overcomes the previous obviousness-type double patenting rejections; and
- b) the prior art alone or in combination does not teach or fairly suggest a package for an integrated circuit die wherein the die pad/contacts have a lip/central peak/central depression/vertical locking means around its circumference for contacting the encapsulant material of the package body, in combination with the other claimed features.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
